HEBER SECOND WARD

When the new boundaries of the Heber Second Ward were established in the 1903 division, a special exception was made to include the premises of Joseph A. Rasband who lived on the east side of Main Street, for Brother Rasband had been selected by the Stake Presidency to be on the court house grounds for the 1924 celebration were used again to cook several beef and lambs and provide free sandwiches to everyone. J. W. Giles and Wesley Duke were in charge of the barbecue.

H. Clay Cummings, one of Heber's more popular mayors, was elected to office in 1928, and was the first mayor to be elected for four consecutive terms. Councilmen who were elected with him in the 1928 election included Sumner Hatch, Ralph F. Nilsson, Frederick Crook and Daniel McMillan. Velma Crook Buys was recorder and Elmer Strong continued as treasurer.

A successful cattleman, Mayor Cummings was also prominent in Church leadership as well as his civic duties. He was president of the Wasatch Stake for nearly 22 years, part of which time he also served as the mayor and later as a county commissioner.

His efforts as mayor included organization of the electric utility as the Heber Light and Power Company, paving main street, building the city's "White Way," and strengthening the fire department through the purchase of a new truck.

City officials who served with Mayor Cummings in his various terms included the following:

1930-31; J. W. Giles, Harold Stevens, Labon Hylton and Sylvan Smith, councilmen; Velma Buys, recorder and Clarence Olson, treasurer.

1932-33: Harold Stevens, Joseph Olpin, W. D. Ely, Daniel McMillan, councilmen; Clarence Olson, recorder; Effie Murdock, treasurer; Ernest Hicken, marshal and George Stanley, city attorney.

1934-35: Ralph Giles, Douglas Giles, Andrew Lindsay, Frank Epperson, councilmen; Clarence Olson, recorder; Thomas Tadd, marshal from daylight until 4 p.m.; Leonard Giles, marshal from 4 p.m. to midnight and Delbert Watson, marshal from midnight until daylight. (Marshal Tadd received $87.50 per month, while Messers. Giles and Watson received $55 per month.)

Another prominent cattleman became Heber's Mayor in the 1935 election when Mayor Cummings decided to run for the county commission. Livingston Clegg Montgomery, known as "L.C." won the election and took office in January of 1936.

Councilmen elected with Mayor Montgomery were Harold Stevens, Nephi Moulton, Douglas Giles, Andrew A. Lindsay and Owen F. Buell. Effie Murdock was treasurer with Leonard Giles as city marshal. City sexton and poundkeeper was William H. Bond.

Mayor Montgomery, an active Democrat, took office in the depression recovery days of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt's administration, and implemented many work programs in Heber. Many city sidewalks were paved under the Works Progress Administration, with the government paying for labor and property owners paying for materials. Ground to build a sewer was purchased and the city waterworks was improved with Public Works Administration funds.

of the men and women who carved a great empire out of a barren wilderness and whose creative spirit assured that future generations would enjoy life in Utah and the Mountain West.

A constitution and by-laws were drawn up under the name The Daughters of Utah Pioneers, and the group pledged themselves to writing of histories, preservation of land marks, collection of relics and old photographs and manuscripts. Mrs. Hyde was elected president of the new group and later was given the title Founder General. Kate B. Carter heads the organization today.

As organized, the DUP consisted of a state central company and camps in each county of Utah. Today the organization has spread to include camps in nearly all parts of the United States and some in Canada and Hawaii.

In Wasatch County the first camp was organized May 28, 1920 by state president Elizabeth A. P. Hayward and secretary Elizabeth M. Taylor Beer. There were 29 women present in the Heber First Ward Chapel for the ceremonies. After a reading of the constitution and by-laws, the following officers were elected: Jane Hatch Turner, president; Eliza Jeffs Rasband, first vice president; Martha Smith Clegg, second vice president; Rowena Ottinger Hatch, secretary; Jennie Wood Broadbent, assistant secretary; Margaret Crook, historian; Carlie Clegg Tidwell, auditor; Lacy Bond Duke, treasurer; Isabel Baum, registrar and
